THE OTHER SIDE. The following are the substantial points of statements made this morning by Dr. Hunter, ex-Congressman Wilson and Mr. Franks. The original statement bears the signature of Mr. Wilson, with indorsements added thereto by Dr. Hunter and Franks, far as I know the statement made by Mr. Gaines is not true. The facts so far as I know are these: Some ten days ago T. Franks told me that Noel A. Gaines had called him by telephone and made ar appointment to meet him and said he had nembers of the Legislature whom he could have vote for Dr. Hunter for $5,000 each and that Gaines wanted $1,000 for his Franks told me that one of the mbers who was to vote for Hunter was at Gaines's house that night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of hearing the member say that he would vote for Hunter whenever Gaines told him to do so. Franks said he thought it was a trick to try to trap him and Hunter and asked me to go to Gaines's house and unravel the scheme, I went; no member appeared. Gaines said the member was afraid of me, but wanted Franks. Afterwards Gaines talked to me several times, saying the members were unwilling for him to divulge their names, but that Franks had promised him $16,000 with which to buy members to vote for Hunter and he either wanted that amount or wanted his $1,000. I told him he must look to Franks for his money. Franks then told me that Gaines said he wanted the $1,000 he would put him in stripes and defeat Hunter's election and that the $1,000 must be paid him by last Thursday at 9 o'clock or he (Gaines) would tell Governor Bradley and put the Statehouse gang after me and Dr. Hunter. Franks replied that he was not afraid, that there was a man in this city who would see that he (Gaines) did we believed Gaines had no one whom he could induce to vote for Hunter. I talked with Gaines at the request of Franks for the purpose of seeing if it was not a scheme prepared to trap Hunter and was engineered by others than Gaines. So far as I know there has never been a dollar here to be used in Hunter's interest. I never discussed names of members with Gaines. It now looks like this matter was used for the purpose of extracting money and is now falsely given to the press in order to defeat Hunter's election when it is generally conceded that he will be elected. far as I know the foregoing statements are reserves have been called out true." The note signed by W. G. Hunter "I do not know Noel Gaines or

Two More Fruitless Ballots for Senator-Fight in the Gallery.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 10,-The greatest excitement prevailed during the first ballot for United States senator at noon to-The galleries and lobbies were crowded with excited partisans, all of whom seemed ready to take a hand in anything that might turn up. The sole topic of conversation was the bribery charges that have been brought against Dr. Hunter and his chief lieutenants, Wilson and Frank. The Republicans denounced them in unmeasured terms, saying it was but a dirty scheme of the Blackburnites to defeat the Repubhis grasp. There was a great deal of feeling in the remarks that were made, and it needed only a spark to start what might | have resulted in serious trouble. Just before the roll was called there was a rough and tumble fight in the right gallery, which created considerable excitement. The fight was between Thomas Morrow, of Somerset, a relative of Judge T. Z. Morrow, and a nephew of Governor Bradley, and Pete Sanders, a local Hunter Republican. Sanders struck Morrow over the eye with a pair of brass knucks, cutting an ugly wound and drawing the blood in copious quantities. Sanders was arrested. The call of the roll showed no quorum present, but a vote was taken anyway. which gave Hunter 57 and Boyle 1. Sixty answered to their names. A motion to ad journ brought out the absentees and the Blakely Estate Fails to Keep His Band from Giving Concerts.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10 .- Judge Biddle to-day, in Common Pleas Court, refused to grant a temporary injunction against John Philip Sousa, the bandmaster, which was asked for by the Blakely estate to prevent Sousa from giving any more musical concerts except under the Blakely management. Counsel for Mrs. Blakely, widow of the former proprietor of the Sousa band, stated that Sousa had appropriated about $5,000 of the money made by he band to his own personal use. Judge Biddle said the proper course to pursue was to bring the case before a court of equity in the usual way.

Gen. Nunez Arrested.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 10,-General Emilio Nunez was arrested at Palm Beach to-day charged with violating the health regulations. He was put ashore in a rowboat from the Bermuda and was promptly arrested by the deputy collector of customs. A carload of Cubans went down the coast Thursday night and were to have been transferred to the Bermuda at Palm Beach, but the activity of the government prevented the plans from being carried out. The cruiser Marblehead and cutter Winona have been ordered from Key West to Palm Beach at the request of the Spanish vice consul here.

No More Bodies Found.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 10,-Insurance men are flocking into Knoxville from every part of the country, and on Monday the losses and insurance on the million-dollar fire of Thursday will be adjusted. So far it is not known the amounts individual companies held, as one of the local agencies was burned. Work of clearing the debris was pushed to-day, but no bodies were found in the ruins of the hotel. Evidences so far prove that three men lost their lives, yet others are missing. All the safes and ney vaults were cut and blown open to-day, and the contents in every instance were found to be intact.

Several Turkish Outposts Destroyed-3.000 "Brigands" Said to Have Crossed Into Macedonia.

LONDON, April 11.-An unconfirmed report from Rome, according to a dispatch to tween Greece and Turkey. This rumor may be based on reports from the scene of Friday's encounter in Macedonia, which say that the Greek regulars were drawn into the fight with the Turks and that all yesterday there was firing between the outwas used on both sides. Four Turkish not suffer. Both Franks and I agreed that | posts were destroyed. On the Greek side Evzones did the principal fighting. It is explained at Athens that the Greek posts were obliged to reply to the fire of the Turks, who, when the insurgents crossed the frontier, attacked both the insurgents

A special dispatch from Athens says that the invasion of Turkish territory by Greek insurgents is believed to be the forerunner of a declaration of war. It is added that in This is signed by John H. A special from Vienna says it is authoritatively announced that all the powers have now agreed to blockade the Piraeus, the port of Athens, and that they are now sending reinforcements for that purpose to their Mediterranean squadrons.

Dispatches from Athens say: port has been received from Larissa to the enect that the insurgents have occupied Bartino, besieging 800 Turks in the barracks. They have already sent nine Turkish prisoners to Kalamabaka. The insurgents fought an engagement with the Penlientza and Zafosbibassi, were abandoned by the Turks. The insurgents then burned the posts. The fighting still continues. The commander of another Turkish post opened fire on the Greek posts of the Prophet Elias. The commander of the post and a Greek sergeant were wounded. The liveliest kind of a fusillade followed, but commanding the Turkish position the Turks then ceased firing. Heavy firing was heard all yesterday in the direction of the Velamisti frontier.

The situation is extremely critical, Fighting between the insurgents and the Turks continues. The minister of war constantly exchanges communications with

Strength of the Irregulars. ATHENS, April 10.-Dispatches received

here to-day from Larissa give details of the invasion of Macedonia by a force of men, it is announced, crossed the frontier | Bulgaria and Roumania massing troops on on Wednesday, the day after the celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of Greek indenpendence in 1821. Tuesday, the day of the celebration, was looked on as likely to be the day the Greeks would select for opening hostilities; but Tuesday in Greece is considered an unlucky day on which to embark on any undertaking of importance, and the crossing of the frontier was postponed until Wednesday. The Greek expeditionary force is commanded by ex-officers and ex-noncommissioned officers of the regular army of Greece and includes the band of Italian volunteers, commanded The so-called insurgents are all well

The latter, it is almost unnecessary to add, made no attempt to prevent the departure of the expedition and, therefore, it cannot be claimed that the movement was unknown to the Greek authorities. Two Greek flags were solemnly intrusted to the charge of the insurgents, and other arrangements were made for forwarding food and other supplies to the expeditionary force. The news of the invasion has caused the most intense excitement here.

Blessed by Greek Monks. LONDON, April 10 .- The Athens correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: "The band of invaders was organized under the personal direction of Gonzos, a Greek, of Alexandria. The headquarters | their duty. were in the valley of the mountainous district of Kelebaka, near the famous monasteries of Memora. Most of the members of the band, which includes a number of Italian volunteers, arrived last week by special train from Volo. A suitable camp was chosen and military organization was then proceded with. The former Greek officers, Mylonas and Kapsalotonios, were given the supreme command. Six captains were appointed, two of them, Zermas and Davelis, are well-known insurgent chiefs. A large number of subalterns, two surgeons and three chaplains, one of whom is a man of gigantic stature and carries the standard. were also appointed. Another chaplain is a priest from Mount Athos. The day after the arrival of the band arms and uniforms badged with the arms of the Ethnike Hetairia (National League) were served out and a commissiariat corps of sixty men was formed. Mules arrived for the transport service, and on Thursday the standard was blessed by the monks of the Memora Monastery. It bears the inscription in Greek, 'En Tonto Nika,' the equivalent of 'In Hoo Signo Vinces.

Albanians and Montenegrins. LONDON, April 10 .- A dispatch from Constantinople reports serious trouble near the Montenegrin frontier, in the district of Seran. Sanguinary conflicts have taken place between the Albanian Mussulmans and the Christians. The troops sent to restore order lost several men killed. The Montenegrin minister at Constantinople, it is added, has sent a protest warning the Turkish government if the Mussulmans continue their attacks it will be difficult for Montenegro to prevent her subjects from going to the assistance of the Christians.

SITUATION IS GRAVE. Little Needed to Set the "Dogs of War"

Barking Along the Frontier. .

(Copyright, 1897, by the Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 10.-Short of an actual declaration of war between Greece and Turkey, the situation could not possibly be graver than it is. To-morrow is the seventy-fifth anniversary of a day the Greeks have only too great cause to remember with horror-the massacre by the Turks of 40,000 of the inhabitants of the Island of Scio during the war of independence. The memory of this, in connection with the litconcert, is not likely to put the Greeks in the humor to withdraw now, even though considerable money. Large Rocker, $1.30.

King George and his ministers are surprised at the immense army Turkey has unexpectedly put on the frontier, well armed and organized, in spite of her supposed want of resources, and may foresee the futility of fighting Turkey if the powers are determined, as they threaten, that neither combatant shall get advantage therefrom. Whether, once the real fighting commences, the powers will be able to execute their threat is a question of the future. The danger of the situation is the fact that Turkey is undoubtedly anxious to give the Greeks a lesson and has only thus far been prevented from so doing by the influence of the powers. The orders which Edham Pasha, the Turkish commander in chief, received from Constantinople when the invasion became known were to speedily ascertain whether any soldiers of the regular Greek army were among the insurgents who crossed the frontier. Telegrams conflict on this point, but it may be supposed that Edham Pasha will not stop to inquire too carefully if there are, as suspected, Greek officers among them. The country around Krania and Grevna is very fertile, well wooded and watered and crossed by narrow roads or bridge paths, where it is mpossible to move large bodies of troops, but extremely favorable to guerrilla warfare. The Turks have an entire division of infantry, cavalry and artillery at Grevunder the command of Hakki Pasha. Their positions are much stronger than those of the Greeks opposite, and it is believed it will tax Prince Constantine to the utmost to prevent some portion of his troops from flying to the help of their

The Duke of Connaught, who commands the Aldershot district, while inspecting the Suffolk Regiment to-day, previous to its departure for the Island of Malta, to replace the troops which have been sent to the Island of Crete, exhorted them, under any circumstances, to uphold the prestige of the British army.

So far as the powers in the concert are concerned the position to-day appears unchanged from what it has been during the week. It is understood that the blockade of Greece hangs fire because some of the powers decline to send the necessary war ships, arguing that, as Great Britain possesses the largest fleet, she ought to en-Turks on Saturday. Three posts, Phoenicia, dure the brunt of the work. Great Britain, however, is reluctant to constitute herself the policeman of Europe and to discharge a distasteful duty. This state of affairs applies also to France and Italy, and certainly to Admiral Canevaro, the Italian officer in command of the allied fleets, who offered to resign rather than take part in the blockade. In so doing he represented the Greeks having occupied several points | the feeling of the Italian nation; but, in the interest of the concert of the powers, he was advised to remain at his post. Great Britain, France and Italy favor concessions which will enable Greece to recede from her present position. Russia and Austria appear to be rather undescided as to what started for the frontier. Official news has course to pursue, but Russia is credited with the desire to allow the Cretans to de-

Germany declines to yield on any point, and besides she is encouraging Turkey against Greece, and refuses to consent to the broad scheme of autnomy for Crete which has been proposed by the other powers. There is a rumor at Athens that Germany has at last been informed that, since she makes no sacrifices, she is not in a position to dictate. If this is true, the concert of the powers may still become something more than a mere name. In spite of official denials it is believed that a treaty of alliance between Servia. Bulgaria and Montenegro is on the eve of conclusion. The treaty, however, will require Russia's approval and will pledge the three states mentioned to defend the independence of this joint territory. It was this news which produced the strained relations between Bulgaria and Roumania, and led the Bulgarians to talk of retaking irregular Greek troops. Last night George Smith, the same constable who led the raid March 27, followed by nine deputies, three of whom were colored men, again visited Haughville. They were armed with huge clubs in size comparable to baseball bats. They descended upon the saloon conducted by Joseph Keating. The place formerly had gambling rooms connected with it. On the night before annexation was a fact Sergeant Corrigan cautioned Keating to remove all gambling devices and to shut off all gambling, and the best evidence is to the effect that Keating took the hint. The fact was demonstrated last night, when the ten constables made a water haul. Captain Quigley said last night that he was certain that there was no gambling going on in Haughville. He was also certain that the men detailed by Superintendent Colbert to look after that part of the city were fully able and willing to perform Two Americans Released.
